4. On 14 March 1948 a general meeting of members of the Shanghai Soviet Lawyers' Union (O. S. Yu., Obshchestvo Sovetskikh Yuristov) was held at the Central Soviet Club. Prior to this general meeting, Soviet Vice Consul Sergeyev called members of the Presidium of the Union to the Shanghai Soviet Consulate. Sergeyev proposed to them that the Union include Soviet citizens in Shanghai who have a university education in law, history, philosophy, political science or economics. At the meeting an amendment to the statutes of the Union was passed. This amendment makes it possible for "economists" to be members of the Union.
5. At this meeting the following were elected members of the Presidium for 1948:
 Chairman: P. P. Shavchenko, legal advisor to the Shanghai Soviet Consulate; 947 Avenue Joffre.
 Vice chairman and treasurer: S. F. Richin, former member of the Imperial Russian Procurator's Office; a former emigre, highly educated; 125/61 Avenue Roi Albert.
 Secretary and director of the Culture Department: A. I. Kulesh
 Alternate: A. A. Melikov, lawyer, former emigre; formerly a member of the Russian Emigres' Committee and of the Arbitration Court for Russian emigres in Shanghai; an active member of the Soviet Parish of St. Nikolai Church; 100/88 Rue Paul Henry.
- Among other duties, the O. S. Yu. handles cases of needy Soviet citizens. The offices of the Union are at 805 Avenue Foch, on the premises of the SCA.
